

NEBRASKA PUBLIC LIBRARY COMMISSION

J. I. WYER JR., PRESIDENT
E. BENJ. ANDREWS,
CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA
W. K. FOWLER,
STATE SUPT. OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION
LEE HERDMAN,
STATE LIBRARIAN
F. L. HALLER,
OMAHA PUBLIC LIBRARY
EDNA D. BULLOCK, SECRETARY

LINCOLN Dec.31,1902.

To trustees and friends of Nebraska libraries:-

We are sending you the first biennial report of this Commission in the hope that you will read it and assist us in giving wider publicity to the work that has been done and that we hope to do. If what you read commends itself to you, it is your privilege as citizens, to render the state a service by helping to extend the influence of our Commission.

You will notice that the law provides that the members and officers of this Commission may, upon request, go wherever in the state there is a need of their services. The Secretary is a graduate of the New York state library school and has had a wide experience in organizing libraries. Such ability as she possesses is at your service. If your library needs reorganizing—and many Nebraska libraries certainly do— you are entitled to the advice and services of this Commission.

Our publications have been sent to the libraries of the state. Ask your librarian to let you see them. If you have not received them, notify me. The Handbook of library organization is designed to help untrained librarians to a knowledge of the best library methods. Has your librarian made good use of it?

Sincerely,

Edna D. Bullock, Sec'y.
