EDNA D. BULLOCK, SECRETARY

10 Jan. 1906.

To officers of farmers' institutes:-

Herewith enclosed is a circular on "Reading in the farm home". The object of this circular is to encourage the growth of home libraries, as well as to extend a knowledge of the special loan and traveling library privileges of this Commission.

The subject is one that is adapted for presentation at farmers' institutes, and will appeal particularly to the women. The Secretary of the Commission will be glad to present this subject whenever requested, if the other business of the Commission does not prevent.

Can you arrange for the judicious distribution of these circulars, that is, for a limited number of them, at your institute? We are anxious to get them into the hands of people to whom they might be interesting and helpful.

How many can you use, and to whom and where should they be addressed?

Respectfully,

Edna D. Bullock, Sec'y.
