1. When Cady/Katie regains consciousness at the beginning of the book, how can you tell she managed to remain calm? How would you handle yourself in the same situation?

2. How did Cady/Katie manage to function while her memories were gone? Would you be able to keep going if you didn’t know anything about yourself?

3. Why did it surprise her when she could do things like martial arts or driving a car?

4. If you were Ty, would you have helped Cady/Katie? Why or why not?

5. Have you ever tried to fool someone by dressing very differently and changing your hair? How did it go?

6. Why did they trust Aunt Elizabeth? Or did they? Were they prepared to go up against her if they needed to?

7. Have you, or anyone you know, ever been hacked on Facebook? What could you do about it?

8. Is this the kind of book you enjoy reading? What other titles would you recommend for people who like mystery/suspense/on-the-run stories?

9. Do you have a GPS in your car or on your phone? Have you used it?

If readers in your library come up with any other One Book ideas, please pass them along to Sally Snyder at sally.snyder@nebraska.gov or call her at 402-471-4003.

Puzzles, discussion questions, and more: http://nlc.nebraska.gov/youth/obok/